

Desoutter & James

Specialists in Spanish wine

Cap de Dansa

The Agricola Sant Josep cooperative was founded in 1962 in the town of Bot in Terra Alta in southern Catalunya. The members, many of whom are now third generation growers, farm a total of 500 hectares of vineyard, almond and olive trees. Brau de Bot was the cooperative's first wine made from vineyards owned and farmed by the members, and the wine local people would drink on a daily basis.

DOP Terra Alta

Grape varieties: White Garnacha

Soil: Limestone

Harvest: Manual

Winemaking: During vinification, part of the must is elaborated with skin-contact, pre-fermentative maceration. Fermentation temperature does not exceed 17°C. 2 months on fine lees before bottling.

ABV: 13 %

Total acidity: 4.7 g/l

Residual sugar: 0.3 g/l

Total SO₂: 70 mg/l

Bottle type: Bordeaux, 75cl

Closure: Micro-granulated cork or screw-top

Tasting notes: Pale yellow. Nuanced aromas of stone fruit. Fresh and persistent on the palate with body. Medium finish.

For prices and more information, please email info@desoutterandjames.com

www.desoutterandjames.com