Herrigoia Zuri

Small plots, old vines and a natural approach is the philosophy at El Mozo Wines. Husband and wife team Itxaso and Gorka are the 3rd generation to manage the 9 hectares of bush vines spread across 18 rocky, mineral-rich plots around the village of Lanciego in Rioja Alavesa. With many of the vines nearly 70 years old, there is minimum intervention in the vineyard to let the quality of the grapes shine through, and during vinification, with lots of spontaneous fermentation with natural yeasts. The result: artisanal, limited edition, organic wines with bags of personality.
