Tega Do Sal

Viña Mein is the story of a mid-life conversion. Javier Alen left the law in the midst of Spain's economic boom and returned to his native Galicia to grow grapes and make wine on an 18 hectare estate in the hauntingly beautiful Avia valley in the Ribeiro appellation. With a focus on native Galician varieties like Treixadura, Torrontes, Loureira, Godello, Albariño and Lado, Viña Mein has built up a reputation for consistently high quality, elegant and floral white wines and, increasingly, aromatic, mineral-driven reds. The Comando G team took over the wine side of the operation in 2015 and are slowly converting the winery to biodynamic.

DOP Ribeiro

Grape varieties: Treixadura, Albariño

Soil: Granite, stones, sandy clay

Harvest: Manual

Winemaking: From a single plot with granite and clay soil, the grapes are fermented in 500 litre oak barrels and rounded off in 800 litre concrete eggs.

ABV: 12 %

Residual sugar: < 2 g/l

Total SO₂: 84 mg/l

Bottle type: Burgundy, 75cl

Closure: Natural cork

Tasting notes: White flowers and aromatic herbs. The granite soil shines through in the texture on the palate. Slightly saline finish, supple and clean.
